Godrej Properties has launched a mixed-use development project spread over 34 acres in Mumbai's Vikhroli suburb. The project will include commercial development spread across 9.4 acres including Godrej One and the Godrej Group's global headquarters that has already been developed. The central mixed-use zone, spread over 9.2 acres, will comprise a 5-star luxury hotel, cultural buildings, luxury residential and retail space, the developer said in a statement. The residential development will be spread over 6.7 acres and the first phase will have a saleable area of 5 lakh sq ft. This is one of Mumbai's largest real estate projects and the first step towards the larger development opportunity in Vikhroli, the company said.
